Lots of Yachts Itinerary: Balearic Islands

The Balearic Islands, a sun kissed arpeggio off the eastern coast of Spain, sits in the heart of the Mediterranean and features perfect yachting weather year around. The Balearic Islands offer a lot for travelers including outstanding natural landscapes, beautiful fishing villages, and a range of watersports to enjoy.

DAY 1 – Start off your adventure with a tour of the Palma Cathedral and a stroll through the historic streets. After, cruise west toward Cala Deia, stopping along the way at Portals Vells and Sa Foradada. Enjoy a lunch at Ca's Patro March then head back on board to take in the cliff scenery featuring terraces of olive and lemon trees. As you sail to Port Andratx you'll pass by Sa Dragonera, a rocky uninhabited island and nature reserve. Port Andratx is a fishermen's village that features great shopping and dining. At night you can sip on an aperitif at Cappuccino Grand Café before dinner at Rocamar. Finish off the night by hanging out at Tim's bar – a favorite local hangout.

DAY 2 – You'll set off from Mallorca to Ibiza while enjoying a great breakfast aboard your yacht. Once arriving at Ibiza you'll head to the Blue Martin Beach Club which overlooks Cala Jondal. The club's D.J. lineup for the season surpasses all expectations and regularly attracts celebrities. After, head to the famous Es Verda rock for a beautiful sunset. At night you'll head into port at Marina Ibiza and dine at Lio Ibiza, where entertainment includes acrobatic performances. After which dance the night away at your choice of one of the great clubs on the island
